Work Better with Marratech Time-to-Meet

Marratech® Time-to-Meet™ brings the power and flexibility of Marratech meetings to small and medium business users as an exciting new subscription service.

Once the domain of large corporations and major universities, Time-to-Meet provides web conferencing and rich collaboration for the rest of us.

Marratech meetings offer features and benefits that are not available or cost extra in competing services. These advanced capabilities come bundled in a single, easy-to-use, graphical interface. Check this out:

See everyone. Marratech meetings also feature real-time video for all participants. You're not limited to the presenter or the first four or six attendees.

Collaborate and share. The best part about a Marratech meeting is the interactive whiteboard. Everyone has access to all of the tools all of the time. No more raising your hand to ask for the telepointer; you have your own! You can even share live applications and let others drive your application remotely.

Be secure. Every Marratech meeting is fully encrypted, end-to-end. All media channels use the Include everyone. Marratech supports Windows, Macs, and Linux platforms. Cross platform support applies to moderators, not just participants.

Hear everyone. What good is a conversation if you can't understand the other party? Marratech meetings feature crystal clear 16KHz audio, the best on the Internet today. Marratech audio can automatically compensate for up to 30% packet loss. A bad day on the Internet does not have to mean a bad meeting for you. Best of all, the audio is built-in. You don't need a separate audio conference and you don't pay extra fees.

new Advanced Encryption Standard (AES) algorithm with 256 bit keys. In addition, Marratech cleans up for you by automatically deleting the whiteboard pages, after the last person leaves a meeting. No more opportunities for others to accidentally see sensitive information.

Save your meeting. Not only can you save your whiteboard pages, Marratech also let's you (or anyone else in your meeting) record the entire proceeding. And like the rest of your Marratech meeting, the recordings are encrypted too.

Rates

Time-to-Meet comes in three, five and ten seat rooms. You can book your room in advance or activate it on demand. Subscriptions can be as short as one day or as long as one month with subscription rates as low as $2.50 per person per day. You can subscribe to as few or as many rooms as you need.

SEATS	1 day	1 week	2 weeks	4 weeks
3	$36	$90	$150	$210
5	$60	$150	$250	$350
10	$120	$300	$500	$700

Unlike some services, Marratech gives you unlimited access to your room for the full length of the subscription period and Marratech does not require that you name the participants who will attend your meetings. Use your room as little or as much as you like and invite whomever you'd like.

Easy Setup

Time-to-Meet is easy to use. Start with a G4 or G5 PowerMac running Mac OS X or a Pentium III or IV running Windows or Linux. Add a headset or echo-canceling microphone. Finish with a web cam if you want others to see you. For a list of recommended peripherals, check out the Audio Video Guide on the Marratech website.

Your Internet connection should offer at least 128 Kbps upstream and 512 Kbps downstream. Most DSL and cable modem connections work fine. Dial-up connections are not supported.
